

The Heart of the Unicorn

Gamma Ray

[Music/Lyrics: Hansen]Masters are relentless, torture is for slaves

Money, greed and power drives you to obey

Temperature is rising, shakes me to the core

Blood and domination, victims of the lawWhen bloody angels spread their wingsWe're drowning in madness,
the heart of the Unicorn...

Dwelling in sadness, the heart of the Unicorn...

...is deadI see the demons rising, beyond their sleeping void

Deep and down the masters take them to the light

Their piercing rays are blazing, obliterating fast

All dreams are torn to pieces, vaporized at lastWhen bloody angels spread their wingsWe're drowning in madness, the heart of the Unicorn...

Dwelling in sadness, the heart of the Unicorn...

...is deadI scan the dead horizon, illuminated curse

In squished imagination, catastrophies unfurl

Beyond the cataclysm, a dream of Unicorns

The purest heart in heaven, stabbed by poisoned thornsBloody angels, searing with fire-turn to dustAll through the millenniums, I've seen the writing on the wall

Into our oblivion, we are the riders on the stormWe're drowning in madness, the heart of the Unicorn...

Dwelling in sadness, the heart of the Unicorn...

...is deadBeware - all dead

No light - all dead

No dreams - all dead

No life - you're dead
