Low Shoulders

Toro y Moi

If you rest for me tonight
I'll let you drive off in the morning
I don't want you in the shoulder
Where no one comes aroundYou go where I want
Over to the wall
Don't mind the sunrise
It weakens, it climbs
If it gets in your eyes
Just look into mine
Just look into dreams
And you'll be alright
I'll be alrightSorry for the others
That was us for the last five years
Now it's over and it's getting better
That's how we lived
Now we're living different
Now it's over and it's getting betterIf you rest for me tonight
I'll let you drive off in the morning
I don't want you in the shoulder
Where no one comes around
