Mission Aborted

The Planet Smashers

Sugar coated candy colored eyes
Certainly helps to hide your disguise
But I'm going to find you
You've got it in for me
Say you're going to get me eventually
But I'm on to your plan
Cause you can't win when you don't understand
The mission is aborted
There's no use in trying
I know what you're up to and I know that you're lying
When it all comes down
It will be too late you won't find me around
Checking out what I do
Won't give any leads give you no clue
Go consult your spies
What they'll tell you will make you realize
