Lights Out

Seasons After

We all fall in place
Walk in single file
Try to find a way to
Reconcile ourselves
Held by your demands
Cursed by our desires
Planning our escape
From what you have become
I don't want to confuse
Myself with you
I don't need your excuse
I won't take ItSo...
When your world comes crashing down
Everything seems just a little bit harder
Lights out the curtain's down
Try to move on but I'm pushed back further
This world is crashing down
Everything seems just a little bit harder
Lights out the curtain's down
Lights out the curtain's downI hold my head up higher
Than the broken words you speak
Walk in single file
I keep my faith so long
As I can find something to believe
We all fall into place
Do as you say to do
As long as I'm not like you
Hoping I escape from what I could become
I don't want to confuse
Myself with you
I don't need your excuse
I won't take It
So...When your world comes crashing down
Everything seems just a little bit harder
Lights out the curtain's down
Try to move on but I'm pushed back further
This world is crashing down
Everything seems just a little bit harder
Lights out the curtain's down

Lights out the curtain's downAs it all comes crashing down
Everything hurts just a little bit longerWhen your world comes crashing down
Everything seems just a little bit harder
Lights out the curtain's down
Try to move on but I'm pushed back further
This world is crashing down
Everything seems just a little bit harder
Lights out the curtain's down
Lights out the curtain's down
