On the Horizon (feat. Mike Tyer)

Doug & Deb

Your morning rises to meet me,
Seeing beyond the present day, out there, on the horizon.
out there, on Your horizon!

I calm my soul and kneel before You,
And listen to Your Holy Word
I see You seated on Your high throne out there, on the horizon.
Out there, on Your horizon!

My Lord is coming, on the Horizon
With great power and glory
The trumpet sounds, the heavens shake,
Look up, your Savior is near
My Hope is on the horizon.
My Hope is on the horizon!

Your sun, Your moon, Your stars are showing
The whole earth groans while nations war.
All people fear the oceans roaring out there, on the horizon.
Out there, on Your horizon!

My Lord is coming, on the Horizon
With great power and glory.
The trumpet sounds, the heavens shake
Look up, your Savior is near.

My Hope is on the horizon.
Our Hope is on the horizon.
Jesus, Youâ€™re on the horizon!
