

Drink Drink Drink

Terry James Clark

Yer high no way to disguise it you reek from here i can smell it you must have savored the flavor gave away things you should have saved urp now i see you ride a bicycle beats ten years locked in a prison cell see you ride the wrong way down the highway pickin bottles tryin to get your fines paid drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk then you fall down down right down on your face alcohol it cost you everything took your house your car your wedding ring good reason to drink even more dont care wanna die on the floor more alcohol for me to consume bottles everywhere all around the room Im hammered from day to night only way i can tolerate life

drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk
then you fall down down right down on your face
drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk
then you fall down down right down on your face used to be you could go out and party now you stay home watchin the TV stayin home keeps you out of trouble no-one likes your alcoholic double

drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk
then you fall down down right down on your face
drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk
then you fall down down right down on your face

(Last Verse--unpublished--Terry James Clark)

You are a drunken moron go ahead and drink another one dog aint been fed in years go'on and cry all your tears

Drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk
then you fall down down right down on your face
drink drink drink till you get drunk drunk drunk
then you fall down down right down on your face your face your face your face THE END!

Lyrics Submitted by Terry James Clark

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>