

Time to Surrender

Winger

Ooh yeah I'm out the back door, just before midnight
I push the pedal to the floor, I run away
She says, "It's only in my head"
But my heart is screamin' Hey you, what you trying to prove?
I won't play your game
And I won't play your fool
Hey you, best be makin' your move
Play your last hand
Better understand Now it's time to surrender, yeah, yeah
'Cause my love don't live here anymore
Ooh babe, time to surrender
There's nothin' left to fight for
There's nothin' left to save Oh, she cries so tough
It's too hard to let go
The lies inside the shadow
Of her tears and of her pain
I denied when she was
Playing the heart breaker Hey you, what you trying to prove?
I won't play your game
And I won't play your fool
Hey you, best be makin' your move
Play you last hand
Better understand Now it's time to surrender, yeah, yeah
'Cause my love don't live here anymore
Time to surrender
It's not love you're makin'
It's my heart you're breakin' Ooh no, you're bringin' me down Oh no, I can't take this again
Night after night
Just pretendin'
Oh no, it's closer to the end
My body says go
But I know That now it's time to surrender, yeah, yeah
'Cause my love don't live here anymore
Ooh babe, time to surrender
(Surrender)
There's nothin' left to fight for
There's nothin' left to save Now it's time to surrender, yeah, yeah
'Cause my love don't live here anymore
Time to surrender

It's not love your makin'
It's my heart you're breakin' Surrender
(Aah, aah, aah, aah)
(Ow)
