Love Songs

Margo Guryan

I heard
Pretty love songs
Coming from an open window
TodayI stopped
To listen to the love songs
And I had to cry
Why didn't I
Just walk awayI knew
All the love songs
Once upon a time he sang them
To meToday
I was crying in the sunshine
When someone said,
"Is something wrong?"
And I said no
It's just a song
And I can't tell you whyPretty love songs always make me cry
