

King of the Whole Damn World

The Brian Setzer Orchestra

Boys, I've got the sign
The pieces fit, the stars align
Now the plan's unfurled
We need the king
The king of the whole damn world
The punks on the street
They won't know what hit 'em
Their Italian suits man
They won't even fit 'em
We'll take 'em down hard
They won't know what bit 'em
They can't even find us
'Cause we just out hid 'em
I'm tellin' you, man
If you're with 'e, best quit 'em
They just can't compete
'Cause we'll just outwit 'em
It's good to be king
King of the whole damn world
He walks by and the people stare
He walks on air without a care
Listen up, just one more thing
This guy's for real
This guy's the king
We'll strike late at night
We won't stop 'til we found 'em
We'll hunt 'em light rats
We'll completely surround them
We'll chase 'em, we'll face 'em
We'll dog 'em, we'll hound 'em
We'll tighten the circle
'Til the rope is around 'em
A bullet I'll take
For the thrill and the cause
We're knockin' out windows
We're tearin' down doors
It's good to be king
King of the whole damn world
When you lead a life like this
You take the shots, you take the hits
Listen brother, I know one thing
It's good to be king
The king of the whole damn world
King of the whole damn world
The king of the whole damn world
King of the whole damn world
King of the whole damn world
The king of the whole damn world
I'm the king of the whole damn world
