The All Encompassing Positive

Mclusky

Hope fades away while Cassius lays his clay
And early in the morning is the only time of day
Where we can get our nap in and sleep our way through fire
Thoughts of distant shores that never leave our seasonWithout a decent reason but I saw you here before
And now your time has come to settle the score, kick me to the floor
Early in the morning is the only time of day
Where we can get our nap in and sleep our way through fireDon't doubt your love could stop my heart
Don't doubt your love could stop my heart
Don't doubt your love could stop my heart
Don't doubt your love could stop my heartFor your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop it
For your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop itFor your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop it
For your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop itDon't doubt your love could stop my heart
Don't doubt your love could stop my heart
Don't doubt your love could stop my heart
Don't doubt your love could stop my heartFor your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop it
For your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop itFor your life I deserve to die
Wrapped in a blanket, not knowing when to stop it
