

Let Go

Seaweed

Suzanne takes you down to her place near the river

 You can hear the boats go by

 You can spend the night beside her

 And you know that she's half crazy

 But that's why you want to be there

 And she feeds you tea and oranges

 That come all the way from China

 And just when you mean to tell her

 That you have no love to give her

 Then she gets you on her wavelength

 And she lets the river answer

 That you've always been her lover

 And you want to travel with her

 And you want to travel blind

 And you know that she will trust you

For you've touched her perfect body with your mind.

 And Jesus was a sailor

 When he walked upon the water

 And he spent a long time watching

 From his lonely wooden tower

 And when he knew for certain

 Only drowning men could see him

 He said "All men will be sailors then

 Until the sea shall free them"

 But he himself was broken

 Long before the sky would open

 Forsaken, almost human

 He sank beneath your wisdom like a stone

 And you want to travel with him

 And you want to travel blind

 And you think maybe you'll trust him

For he's touched your perfect body with his mind.

 Now Suzanne takes your hand

 And she leads you to the river

 She is wearing rags and feathers

 From Salvation Army counters

 And the sun pours down like honey

 On our lady of the harbour

 And she shows you where to look

Among the garbage and the flowers
There are heroes in the seaweed
There are children in the morning
They are leaning out for love
And they will lean that way forever
While Suzanne holds the mirror
And you want to travel with her
And you want to travel blind
And you know that you can trust her
For she's touched your perfect body with her mind
