Evil Thoughts

Jesse force

Evil Thoughts As my lamp grows dim and I'm hardly hangin' on
In this path I've been followin' for years
Now is not so well lit
And the pieces don't fit no more

Should I proceed or turn back around?
Lord, let me know what I should do

Evil thoughts, evil powers seek my mind
I feel lost every time
Evil force, evil ways close behind
I need love, I need love, I need love

Back the way I came, nothin' looks the same
And the bread crumbs I've left along the way
Now have been eaten away
By the birds I have left in my past

Should I proceed or turn back around?
Lord, let me know what I should do

Evil thoughts, evil powers seek my mind
I feel lost every time
Evil force, evil ways close behind
I need love, I need love, I need love

All I know isn't always the truth, yeah
All I know isn't always the case, oh
All I know isn't always the truth, ah
All I know isn't always the case

As the days grow long and the sun's gone down
It's so hard for me

Evil thoughts, evil powers seek my mind
I feel lost every time
Evil force, evil ways close behind
I need love, I need love, I need love

All I know isn't always the truth, yeah

All I know isn't always what it seems
I need love, I need love, I need love
