

Loneliest Star

Seal

Picture the sky that is how high I reach
So far alive none have been right for me
But your love, is a chance of love to take
With each breathe in me I wake
If it brings you back to me Because I'm free and in love
I'm the loneliest star from the sun
But I feel that I'm close to than one
It will stop me from becoming undone 'Cause I'm free
I have been close
I have been almost real (who do you really want to make it, who do you want to kill)
But city light
But nothing quite like here (who do you really want to be right here) Your love, (your love) is a life that binds us
both, (your love)
With each breathe in me that I hold
We will throw it all away Don't you know that I'm free and in love
I'm the loneliest star from the sun
But I feel that I'm close to than one
It will stop me from becoming undone (With your love), I know that I can be the best with, (With your love),
I know that I can take a risk with (With your Love), I can fly away love, (With your love, With your love),
I feel alone to try and mess with, (With your love), you and I
Can be possessed with (With your love), I can try for you now (With your love) Don't you know that I'm free and in love
I'm the loneliest star from the sun
But I feel that I'm close to than one
It will stop me from becoming undone 'Cause I'm free, don't you know I'm free
'Cause I'm free, don't you know I'm free.
