Man Enough

Haywire

Would you ever read this note
If you knew that I was stranded
Walk a million miles for you
But you take it all for granted

Cause I'm fallin' straight through
When I know I'd save you
Oh, I hope you understand it
I could never - ever

Man Enough, Man Enough to feel
Such emotion
Man Enough, Man Enough to be
In love with you

Under your world above the sky
My thoughts are random
A vision in my mind
Only if you could stop pretendin'

That you lied to save me
When I tried to break free
Every second - precious moments
They get stronger...
Stronger!

Man Enough, Man Enough to feel
Such emotion
Man Enough, Man Enough to be
In love with you

I've been tryin' to find it
The courage to tell you
But before I say,
Please Understand
I had to know myself
Had to know myself

Man Enough, Man Enough to be
In love

Man Enough, Man Enough to feel
Such emotion
Man Enough, Man Enough to be
In love with you
