So I Fall Again

Phantom Planet

I can't say if this feeling coming over me is real
But I know it's something you can't steal
So I'll buy another problem to approach
Sell a virgin lie that can't be touched
So I fall again, so I fall again
So I break through this rotten piece of wood againI can't say if this here fucking subject should be dropped
But I know it's something you can't stop
So I'll buy another pickup line and sigh
And pretend that everything is alright
So I fall again, so I fall again
So I break through this rotten piece of wood againSo I break through this rotten piece of wood
So I break through this rotten piece of wood
So I break through this rotten piece of wood again
So I fall again, so I fall again
So I break through this rotten piece of wood again
