

Mystery Girl

The Naked Brothers Band

Who's that mystery girl
(Who's that mystery girl)
Who I see on my block?
(Who I see on my block?)I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, oh, wrong
I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, oh, wrongI will get you, mystery girl
If it takes everything
You might not remember me
But I remember youWho's that mystery girl
(Who's that mystery girl)
Who I see on my block?
(Who I see on my block?)I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, oh, wrong
I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, yes, I was wrongI will find you whatever it takes Mystery girl, so mysterious
You might not remember me but I remember you
Oh, mystery girl, I wish you were realWho's that mystery girl
(Who's that mystery girl)
Who I see on my block?
(Who I see on my block?)I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, oh, wrong
I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, yes, I was wrong(Who's that mystery girl?)
Oh, who I see on my block
Block, block, block, block, oh
(Who I see on my block?)Oh, I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, I was wrong
I never believed in love at first sight
But I was wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong, wrong
