

I'll Be

Kt Mulholland

"I'll Be"

You cry you've had enough today
Call off the cavalry, lick all your wounds and say
Uncle, mercy, giving up
I'm what is left when what is right is all used up
I'll be your wild night when you want it
I'll be your fix
I'll be your tourniquet, you're bleeding on my sheets
I'll be the one you wish you could forget

Oh, I'll be your wildest dream (one you wish you could forget)
Oh, I'll be your wildest dream (one you wish you could forget)

So you missed your ten seconds of fame?
Then blamed your enemies, or the ones you knew by name.
Fear of failure, lack of grace
If it's the last you save, be sure to save some face.

I'll be your sweet escape when you need it
I'll be your drug
I'll be your ticket out of here,
We're pulling out the gate,
I'll be the one you wish that you hate.

Oh, I'll be your wildest dream, I'll be your wildest dream
Oh, I'll be your wildest dream, I'll be your wildest dream
Oh, I'll be your wildest dream, I'll be your wildest dream
Oh, I'll be your wildest dream, I'll be your wildest dream
