Near

Jason Crabb

How can a world so beautiful
Be so cold, be so cruel
Sometimes love just seems so far away
Suffering is no stranger here
Breaks my heart, feeds my fear
Trying to steal my hope and my faith
But I believe You when You say
You are near, whenever I feel alone
I'm not on my own
God I know You're standing here
You are near, when all the world seems dark
Still I know You are the light that will always find me here
You are near
Father we know You're here with us
In our tears, in this dust
Reaching them where sometimes we just can't see You never leave and never will
Your love saves, does not fail
So lead us to be the hands and feet
Until the whole world sees
That You near, whenever I feel alone
I'm not on my own
God I know You're standing here
You are near, when all the world seems dark
Still I know You are the light that will always find me here
You are near
On the cross Your life was taken by Your death we are awakened
We will never be forsaken now
You're alive and hope is risen
Hearts restored and I'm forgiven
Love is here to stay (repeat)
You are near, whenever we feel alone
We're not on our own
God we know you're standing here
You are near, when all the world seems dark
Still we know You are the light that will always find us here
You are near
You are near

Whenever I feel alone
I'm not on my own
God I know You're standing here
