

New Death

Voodoo Church

Brand New Death

Longing for the forbidden
Now fades in time
Eyes that see me
Your eyes are always blind
The gates of the immortal, I'll open just for you Angels are jealous of me, jealous of you

Close your eyes
One last time
let your heart rest, next to mine
Slowly, slowly one last breath
Wake up to a brand new, brand new death

Faded statues they're watching, with lust in their mind
Another darkness of you in somewhere in time?
The gate of the immortal, I'll open just for you demons are jealous of me, jealous of you

Close your eyes
One last time
let your heart rest, next to mine
Slowly, slowly one last breath
Wake up to a brand new, brand new death
