It's Not Enough

Jules Bartholomew & Judacamp

It doesn't matter how much I bless you
It's not enough... It's not enough

It doesn't matter how much I bless you
It's not enough... It's not enough

If I could praise you for all your mercies
I'd still owe you much for your grace

So Lord I'll praise you, Praise you forever
It's not enough... It's not enough

It doesn't matter how much I bless you
It's not enough... It's not enough

It doesn't matter how much I bless you
It's not enough... It's not enough

If I could praise you for all your mercies
I'd still owe you much for your grace

So Lord I'll praise you, Praise you forever
It's not enough... It's not enough

If I could praise you for all your mercies
I'd still owe you much for your grace

So Lord I'll praise you, Praise you forever
It's not enough... It's not enough
