Those Who Wait

Daley

when i was a boy i was always was caught, in the middle i was never a winner just a loaner in a crowd trying to find a way out (x2) when i grew a little older and a little bolder i grew in my face and the future i was chasing never seemed to be worth in my ratetill i heard somebody say slow, slow down nothings going to happen before its time. slow, slow down let the pieces fall into place and you'll be fine. take your time so im waiting cuz i know it going to be (next in line) to clam my prize and be all that i want to be (yea, yea) and i worked so hard to earn my place, and good things come to those who wait, (wait x5) good things come (good things come) so a minute i iadventurally, i took the lead and i landed on ... my.... feet.yea i found my team my family as a chasers dream i know that they believe in me, and were on to something good i know were about to come coat this world and im so glad i took my time. im glad i did it the right way slow, (slow) slow (slow) down (down) down now on the symptom my intsackes, when i lose my way slow, slow down (yea) and that when they say take your time so i waiting cuz i know im going to be (next in line) to claim my prize and be all that i want to be (yea, yea) and i worked so hard to earn my place (earn my place) and good things come to (those who wait) (those who wait) good thins come.woo and i don't now (a eddie any more). and i know i die tomorrow i wouldn't regret a single thing. i want to look back where i have been. and know that i made my own way that i live this day (?)id be looking for that good thing (that good thing) take your time so im waiting cuz i that im going to be (next in line) to clam my prize and be all that i want to be (yea, yea) and i work so hard to earn my place good things come to those who wait (take your time) (good things to those who wait) (next in line) apprcaite those who wait, think you to those who wait (good things come to who)

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/