

Knife Going In

Tegan and Sara

If I don't recover
Sell this house and find
Something lost outside your window Not forever
But on the night I die I swear
I'll sleep outside your window I feel the knife going in
I'm feeling like she's not enough to kill me
I thought it up and fast But I'm feeling it now
And I feel like she's sleeping inches from me
I let it pass And you should have stopped
Do you think I'll make it to the morning
If it's written 'Stitch it up'? The kind of song I know
'Cause mother, sister, lover worry" I feel the knife going in
I'm feeling like she's not enough to kill me
I thought it up and fast But I'm feeling it now
And I feel like she's sleeping inches from me
I let it pass I feel the knife going in
I'm feeling like she's not enough to kill me
I thought it up and fast But I'm feeling it now
And I feel like she's sleeping inches from me
I let it pass Feel the knife going in
I'm feeling like she's not enough to kill me
I thought it up and fast But I'm feeling it now
And I feel like she's sleeping inches from me
I let it pass
