When the Sun Shines

Steve Forbert

Down comes the pounding rain
And dark are the skies up above me
But you'll be mine when the sun shines
Racing to catch late trains
And waiting while crowds push and shove me
But you'll be mine when the sun shinesWhen the sun shines and I see your face
All of my long nights will melt into space
And nobody speaks my name
Soft like it sounds when you love me
But you'll be mine when the sun shinesWhen the sun shines and I see your face
All my long nights will melt into space
And that's when I won't look back
And won't sing a thing about sorrow
'Cause you'll be mine when the sun shinesTrain on a countdown track
Still a few miles from tomorrow
But you'll be mine when the sun shines
And you'll be mine when the sun shines
