

Into the Sun

Stan Ridgway

Here, where the air's too thick to breathe
I'll hit the road now, and take my leave
    No-one will care, I'll slip away
        Into the sun
    Where the clouds all meet the sky
    Where the sand blows in your eye
I'll take your hand, we'll walk this land
    Into the sun
Out where all the crows all dive your slack
Out where the beer cans don't talk back
    We'll disappearit's time we run
        Into the sun (Into the sun)
        Into the sun (Into the sun)
Now, for the times I've heard the sound
    From way up high to underground
The wind will burn, our heads will turn
    Into the sun
    There where the cow walks the toad
The tumbleweeds speak in secret code
    No lawns to mow, our new plateau
        Into the sun
Out where the sagebrush sings our song
    Some will be jealous of our home
But no friends we'll shun, as we fly off
    Into a new day
        Into the sun (Into the sun)
Into the sun (Into the sun)Yeah, oh, we gonna get there
    Drivin' on the highway
        All night long
        All night long
    It's gonna be boilin' hot
        Out in the sun
        Out in the sun
        Out in the sun
