it's all a about you it 's all about you baby ,its all about you , its all about you yesterday you asked me something i thought you knew so why dont you with a smile it's all about you ,then you wispered in my ear hole and you told me too said you made my life worth wile , its all about you ,and i wold answer all wishes if you asked me too but if you denined me on of your kisses i dont no what i'd do, so hold me close and say the three words you used too do, dancing on the kitchen top it's all about you.....//.....and i would answer all your wishes like you asked me too ,but if you denied one of your kisses i dont no what i'd do ,so hold me close like you say three words that you used to do
