

Story By Common

Big Sean

Yea, what up! It's Common right here!

Y'all know where I come from,

and uh, shoot I used to come to the D. I used to go to Detroit, like, every two weeks to record with J Dilla.

I be standing at the Atheneum, and then, you know, he'd come scoop me up

We'd either eat, we'd eat at a Coney Island, close to his crib.

He stayed 'round McNich'.

We'd go down in his basement and stuff, and Jay Dee would dig through the records and then he would make a beat.

And then once he make a beat, I'd be like, "Yo that beat cold," and then I'd just sit there.

Anyway, I love the D, man

; We used to kick it off in the D. That was like all day. That's what we do
