Bare

Coram Lethe

Half a chance of happiness, beckoning,
Blessed by a moment in time
Strange to think, that in a different circumstance
You wouldn't be in my life
Fearful of falling, there's so much to lose
When you know it's right.
Baby I'm bare
Bare as I dare to be with you
So good I'm scared
Or how much you mean to me
Do you know, do you care?
My love for you leaves me bare
Hard enough accepting it for what it is
And letting it fall into place;
Give a little tenderness, and hoping it
Doesn't blow up in your face
Tell me you feel it, you're no good to me
'Til you know it's right...

Baby I'm bare
Bare as I dare to be with you
So good I'm scared
Or how much you mean to me
Do you know, do you care?
My love for you leaves me bare
Don't you let me go
I'm totally exposed
No, don't leave me bare...
Bare as I dare to be, dare to be,
I'll ever be...
So good I'm scared
Or how much you mean to me
Do you know, do you care?
My love for you leaves me bare
My love for you leaves me bare
