

If Still It Can't Be Found

Joe Pug

There's a road I have known I could always find
If I walked ahead, I could look behind
If I fell behind, I could always know It it's not around this corner, it's around the next
If it's not beyond this river, it's beyond the rest
And if still it can't be found, it's probably for the best There's a hand I have known I could always hold
Through the nights so long, through the days so fair
If I lost my grip I would not despair
It it's not around this corner, it's around the next
If it's not beyond this river, it's beyond the rest
And if still it can't be found, it's probably for the best So I'll keep walking, on and often
You can hear the echoes of my steps
It it's not around this corner, it's around the next
If it's not beyond this river, it's beyond the rest
And if still it can't be found, it's probably for the best
If still it can't be found, it's probably for the best There's a road I have known I could always find
