

Running Away

MxPx

Strong words is all I can think to say to you
So much has changed and I'm not getting through
Faced with the possibility of growing old alone
And backed with a head that's made of stone The black cloud follows me wherever I go
If I ignore it for another day
Then maybe it'll go away I'm running away, I'm running away
I don't care where I go or where I stay The question can't be answered so easily
Deep in it all, we can't seem to agree
Waking up, the bad taste won't leave me alone
I'm like a man out of time, a man without a home The black cloud follows me wherever I go
If I ignore it for another day
Then maybe it'll go away I'm running away, I'm running away
I don't care where I go or where I stay It's always hard to admit
When I've been wrong all along
It's always hard to admit
I'm always wrong The black cloud follows me
Wherever I go
If I ignore it for another day
Then maybe it'll go away I'm running away, I'm running away
I don't care where I go
I don't care where I stay I'm running away, I'm running away
I don't care what I do or what you say
I don't care what I do or what you say
