Jailbird

M. Ward

Jailbird, jailbird, singing through the wires
'Cause his cage is closed and he's stuck inside
Said who's gonna hear my help me, help me now?
Yeah, who's gonna hear my help me, help me now?
(Help me, help me, help me, help me now)Hangman, hangman, knocking on the door
Says heaven can't wait to have you no more
So who's gonna hear your, help me, help me now?
(Help me, help me, help me, help me now)Yeah, who's gonna hear your help me, help me now?
(Help me, help me, help me, help me now)
Better go find another best friend somehowHelp me, help me, help me, help me now
Help me, help me, help me, help me nowAngel, angel, coming for me now
On eagle's wings, down from the clouds
Save my soul before they lay my whole body down
Save my soul before they lay me whole body down
(Help me, help me, help me, help me now)So there's nothing but skin and bones
Hiding under a dead man's clothes
Six feet deep in a black box undergroundHelp me, help me, help me, help me now
Help me, help me, help me, help me now
