Welcome to Eternity

Revive

Oh, we sit around and talk for hours
About our dreams and the future in our power
Oh, such fools we were to ever think that this was it
To think ourselves as permanent and forget the immanentAnd inside the tears rose as I pray for your soul
Oh, what can I say to make sure you believe?
On the day you receive your welcome to eternityOh and death was never such an issue
Yeah, we'd cross on that bridge when we had to
Oh but please, please look a little more
Don't just ignore the knocking at your doorAnd inside the tears rose as I pray for your soul
Oh, what can I say to make sure you believe?
On the day you receive your welcome to eternity'Cause life is more than what you see
There's more to it all than what you breathe
Oh, it's the start of what's to come
Yeah, we've only just begun to seeSo inside the tears rose as I pray for your soul
Oh, what can I say to make sure you believe?
On the day you receive your welcome to eternity
