

Fire In the Hole

Orange 9mm

You think you know me
You'd bet your life, you do
I beg to differ No matter what your view
There's fire in the hole
I've gotta let you know
Like fire in the hole I got to and I want to
Blow you down, nowhere to hide
Don't cry now, blow you down
Nowhere to hide, don't cry now There's fire in the hole
There's fire in the hole
I've gotta let you know
There's fire in the hole Just goes to show you
No matter what you do
I can see right through your eyes I despise, all the things you said
Were lies, was I supposed to fold?
Why should I let you go?
Like fire in the hole I got to and I want to
Blow, you'll never live it down
You'll never live it down
You'll never live it down You think you know me
You'd bet your life you do
I beg to differ No matter what your view
There's fire in the hole
I've gotta let you know
Like fire in the hole I got to and I want to
Blow you down, nowhere to hide
Don't cry now, blow you down
Nowhere to hide, don't cry now There's fire in the hole
There's fire in the hole
I've gotta let you know
There's fire in the hole
