IT TAKES TWO:
Written By: GABE Lustmanit takes two to make it right so follow me lets own the night come light my fire
lets burn up the floor
you know that it takes two ya it takes two why not me and youI came to dance without the intention of falling in love but fate had other plans and the way that she moved just got the best of meunder the lights there she was looked me in my eye
thats when she saidit takes two to make it right
so follow me lets own the night
you know that it takes two ya it takes two why not me and youso close I can feel her heart beating for me like an 808 temperature is rising I'm asking myself how did I get hereunder the lights
there she was
so follow me lets own the night
you know that it takes two ya it takes two why not me and you
