Distant Skies

Angela Hutchins

How far is this line?

I tread it up so softly. Afraid of heights my dear? - and yet you promised all to me.

I bend to look around - the wind takes my breath away..

I lean to take it in. Don't be so afraid for me..

I listen to the warnings.

See them rise before my eyes. Nothing looks so good to me.

(Chorus)
Eyes out. Distant skies.

We'll Find your own. The rain is paused, my curious still rips in white.

The busted stars are shooting all around.

Beyond those..

"Distant skies."

(Guitar Break)

I felt the weight..

The gravity holding me back but then, to go to jump.

only to make me fall - again.

--

So I listen to the warning.

See them rise before my eyes.

Nothing looks so good to me.

Eyes out! Distant Skies!
[x2]

--
[Chorus]
We'll Find your own. The rain is gone, my curious still rips in white.

Busted stars are shooting all around.

Beyond those!

"Distant Skies!"

(Guitar Solo)

Oh oh.
--

One day I know. One day I must go beyond those Distant Skies..
One day I know..
One day I must go.. beyond those Distant Skies..
One day I know
One day I must go beyond those Distant Skies!
[x3]

[Chorus end]
We'll Find your own. The rain is gone, my curious still rips in white.

Busted stars are shooting all around!

Beyond those!

"Distant Skies!!"

(Guitar Solo end)
