

Slow Down

Eternal Tango

Stop running,
travel in peace.
The world is resumed
in pages you will never read.
Remember who Navigates "en route"
for sea looking for certain death.
Tell me river,
why don't you crawl back?
Young Messiah
lay with me
you need to rest.
Traveling is meaningless
without a map.
Look inside me
you'll see frozen ashes inside my chest.
Young man believe me:I've been down that path.Slow Down, Slow Down
You're missing the best part.
All in with the wrong cards.
Travel to the stars.Slow Down, Slow Down
You're missing the best part.
All in with the wrong cards.
Sing me a song
in a language you don't speak.
Dive inside me
and follow the melody.
You think you're drowning.
You're not drowning
you're just letting go!
I will bring you back a better man!Slow Down, Slow Down
You're missing the best part.
All in with the wrong cards.
Travel to the stars.Slow Down, Slow Down
You're missing the best part.
All in with the wrong cards.
Travel to the stars.I'll bring you back a better man
I'll bring you back

So bring you back a better man Slow Down,
Down Down
Slow Down,
Down Down Slow Down, Slow Down
Slow Down, Slow Down Slow Down, Slow Down
You're missing the best part.
All in with the wrong cards.
Travel to the stars.
Slow Down, Slow Down
You're missing the best part.
All in with the wrong cards.
Travel to the stars
