Jeanne Mas

Man, you had me fooled
What I thought was sweet was so rude, now
    You can see all them words
Cause such a [Incomprehensible]
    What you are is a problem
No, and you won?t change me
    ?Cause I?ll never go
        No, I never know
        Chocolate covered sheets
More than [Incomprehensible]
    That was once homemade

Well now, I know I can?t be saved by you
    You and I won?t have to go
        And all my dreams
        Are a part of you now
They?re a part of you now
    Please won?t you go
        And set me down?
I?m not sure what goes on
    What goes on, yeah
