Simmer

Jinn

Where it starts
And where it ends
Is here in my bedroomChatter from vents
Is the only thing seeping throughI see spiders defend
The same space Im living in
I should be calmer to mend
The words are matteringWhat am I waiting for?
Somebody to break in
What am I aiming towards?
A fight that never ends
What am I searching for?
A light to shine againA silent curtain
Still the worlds still grinning
I need a strong arm my friend
To keep me from simmeringWhat am I waiting for?
Somebody to break in
What am I aiming towards?
A fight that never ends
What am I searching for?
A light to shine againNothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings comingIf I get up
Ill let this end
Where do I begin?What am I waiting for?
Somebody to break in
What am I aiming towards?
A fight that never ends
What am I searching for?
A light to shine againNothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings coming
Nothings comingThats where it starts
Thats where it ends
Thats where it starts
Thats where it ends
Thats where it starts
And where it ends
