

Roll Me Easy

Roll Me Easy

Glen Campbell

I am just a vagabond, a drifter on the run.
An eloquent profanity, it just rolls right off my tongue.
Now I have dined in Palaces, I drank wine with Kings and Queens,
But darling sweet darling,
Now you're the best thing I've ever seen.
Singing roll me easy, roll me so nice and easy.
Take my independence with no apprehension, no tension,
We'll walk and talk in sweet paradise.
Now I have crossed this country Lord, from Denver to the ocean.
But I've never met girls that could sing so sweet
As the angels that live in Houston.
Singing harmony, and that you're the sun. Sweet harmony.
You gotta raise your flag and I'll beat my drum.
Singing roll me easy. Now roll me so nice and easy.
I said roll me easy. Roll me so slow and easy.
I said roll me easy, roll me so slow and easy.
Ohh Yeahhh roll me easy.
Why don't you roll me so slow and easy
