

Love Was Just a Lie

Halocene

With eyes like emeralds
And lies like heroin
Don't tell me about deceiving
Cause you're the definition You smile you look to kill
Oh it's sweet as crack cocaine
Don't tell me about believing
You just played me in your game I cried to stay away
But you'll try and try again
I guess you love to break my heart
Even after the end and You use me, abuse me
I gave you all my love and you gave me goodbye
You use me, confuse me
Nice to finally find your love was just a lie Masochistic love
I'm a victim of fate
You're twisted and sadistic
You're the one I crave to hate Oh I cry to stay awake
Cause you haunt me in my dreams
I guess you hate to stray from me
Even after the ending You use me, abuse me
I gave you all my love and you gave me goodbye
You use me, confuse me
Nice to finally find your love was just a lie You use me, abuse me
I gave you all my love and you gave me goodbye
You use me, confuse me
Nice to finally find your love was just a lie You use me, abuse me
I gave you all my love and you gave me goodbye
You use me, confuse me
Nice to finally find your love was just a lie
