

A Sense of Freedom

Band of Friends

will try anything to keep you in check live with your thoughts to make you forget but you stand as a man when you calls on a deck hang in your frame for freedom they frame you and blame you with lawyers of words let in your head to escape in a flirt scanding your name with a tranquil of mud they can't take your sense of freedom freedom is one thing you have on your side when you facing the floor, when you're mind's on a rise freedom is let in the whole world know you clamb to the sky, you decided to grow

solo

you clamb to the sky, you decided to grow

they can hit you so hard 'till you rolling in hell put you in solitary pretending you fell punction your mind till us ringing a bell ringing a bell of freedom they can't take youre sense of freedom

Aaaaaahaaaa, Aaaaahaaaa etc.
