

Wanna Little Something

Anouk

I found myself in another dimension
I got the killer in my hand
I'm laying back, I can feel no tension
There's no turning back
I do not care for your opinions
Just trying to get by and make the worried go away
Not getting high I wanna little something, something
I wanna feel the love inside
I wanna little something, something
Let the day turn to night
'Cause when I'm high I go up,
and I reach the stars
What more can I say?
All the bruises you left me
Closing my heart
Throw them all away And maybe the world's an ocean
And I'm just a step and stone
Your words will never hurt me
They'll never break my bones
I do not care for your opinions
Just tryina get by and make the worried go away
Not getting high I wanna little something, something
I wanna feel the love inside
I wanna little something, something
Let the day turn to night
'Cause when I'm high I go up,
and I reach the stars
What more can I say?
All the bruises you left me
Closing my heart
Throw them all away Wanna feel the love
Wanna feel it I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night
I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night
I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night

I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night
I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night
I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night
I wanna feel the love inside
Let the day turn to night
I wanna feel!
