

The Massacre of the Innocents

Embrace Destruction

this is what really happened people with no flags raising their voices they're too busy to decide the destiny of you all they set the demons free, they're controlling the terror today (x) we break this wall of silence this is what really happened brave enough to contest their power you cannot fight with stones against gunfire they're too busy to decide the destiny of you all they set the demons free, they're controlling the terror today (x) we break this wall of silence

this is what really happened and they will do it again (they will do it again)

your faith will be erased the torture (torture)

will be denied forever no one's really safe you are just asleep in a field of sheeps but if you want to make a change you will face the annihilation nowhere to hide the big eye is checking your life and if you wish to react the last barrier will be your first frontier don't let this happen again in a shrine of blood you'll confront the horror stand and react to fight back the massacre of the innocents
