Beautiful Blues

Stray Cats

Always a queen, always so fine
Always some joker standin' in line
To get a view
And now he's hittin' on youWell, let me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautiful bluesSince you were a babe, you've been heaven sent
Just think of all the money
These crazy men have spent on you
I guess, I'm one of them tooWell, let me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautiful bluesNow there must be times when you get tired of bein' idolized
It's got you searchin' for a man who ain't that kinda guy
Where you gonna be when you get old?
You're gonna need somebody to have and to hold on to
Who really cares about you, I doWell, let me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautiful bluesAlways a queen, always so fine
Always some joker standin' in line
To get a view
And now he's hittin' on youWell, let me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautiful bluesI'm gonna tell you, since you were a babe, you've been heaven sent
Just think of all the money
These crazy men have spent on you
I guess, I'm one of them tooWell, let me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautiful bluesNow there must be times when you get tired of bein' idolized
It's got you searchin' for a man who ain't that kinda guy
Where you gonna be when you get old?
You're gonna need somebody to have and to hold on to
Who really cares about youWell, let me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautifulLet me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautifulLet me hear you sing it
Baby sing the beautiful blues
