Lights

SOHN

We weave in and out of consciousness alone
Til our bodies collide and keep us from getting cold

Skin pores open up and swallow each other whole
And the scars we collect connect and reverse the flow

And so it goes (x2)

Emotions in motions motion us to wars
And our last experience has served as swords

Each life that we take burns holes into the walls
Til the roof caves and we wash up on the shore

And so it goes (x4)

But thereâ€™s a light
If you dare to believe it
It floods in and washes all away
Blood, sweat and tears wonâ€™t retrieve it
You just have to wait to receiveâ€¦

The light
If you dare to believe it
It floods in and washes all away
Blood, sweat and tears wonâ€™t retrieve it
You just have to wait to receive it

(x2)
Blood, sweat and tears wonâ€™t retrieve it
You just have to wait to receive it
