

O.K. for You

Julian Lennon

You don't make me feel like I used to do
Oh no
'Cause I've already seen the other side of you
Oh yeah Look at me while you're smiling through your lies
Swear blind, they ain't nothing you can hide It's O.K. for you
'Cause it's O.K., O.K.
It's O.K. for you
There ain't nothing to disguise You suck me in
And then you spit me out
It makes me wanna scream
And it makes me wanna shout I don't need you now like I used to do
Oh no
'Cause I've found another girl who's completely true
Oh yeah Turn away, try to catch me with your spies
Mirror cracks, see the devil in your eyes It's O.K. for you
'Cause it's O.K., O.K.
It's O.K. for you
There ain't nothing to disguise You suck me in
And then you spit me out
It makes me wanna scream
And it makes me wanna shout It's O.K. for you
'Cause it's O.K., O.K.
It's O.K. for you
There ain't nothing you can hide You suck me in
And then you spit me out
It makes me wanna scream
And it makes me wanna shout
