

But for Now

Jamie Cullum

Sure I know you'd like to have me
Talk about my future
And a million words or so to fill you in about my past
Have I sisters or a brother
When's my birthday, how's my mother
Well my dear in time, I'll answer all those things you ask
But for now I'll just say I love you
Nothing more seems important somehow
And tomorrow can wait come whatever
Let me kiss you forever then once more
Once more
Some fine day when we go walking
Well take time for idle talking
Sharing every feeling as we watch each other smile
I'll hold your hand, you hold my hand
Well say things we never had planned
Then we'll get to know each other in a little while
But for now let me say I love you
Later on there'll be time for so much more
But for now meaning now and forever
Let me kiss you forever but right now
Right now
