Uprising

Belial's Bride

Wicked trees prime for the fire. Complacent souls enslaved to a liar. Unity held by a web of lies. We are born to watch this damn world die.

Vessels of clay full of disease. Sacred life becoming unclean. Human flesh tempted, forbidden pride. King of evil becoming deified.

*Uprising.

Submit yourself to the lord of lust. Take the mark or face the holocaust. Universal order obtained by blood. Awake to the hour of when humanity's fucked.

Kindled fire. Guillotine. Slaughter masses: One world deceived.

Watch unaware of the uprising. Chaos brews within the sands of time. The fallen children stand unjustified. Fucking grace just to compromise.

Prince of Darkness, Morning Star. Embody your servant and take your rule. Let abomination be your throne. Set your mark on the fucking fools.
