

Another Piece Of Meat

Scorpions

Met her down at that Tokyo place, loved her pretty face
I said, "Hey, you're alright, so alright"
I was sitting in her car
She told me, "You're a star and I know you" She said, "Take me home, I need love so strong
Come on and knock me out, knock me out
I've been too long alone
I want hot love, you know and I need it now" She said, "Hey, let's go, don't put on a show
You're just another piece, another piece of meat"
Said, "Hey, let's go, don't put on a show
You're just another piece, another piece of meat" Next day she took me out to a rough kick boxing show
Violence really turned her on, oh no
She was screaming for more blood
Loved it more than any drug, I couldn't stand it I said, "Hey, let's go, don't put on a show
You're just another piece, another piece of meat"
Said, "Hey, let's go, don't put on a show
You're just another piece, another piece of meat" I said, "Hey, let's go, don't put on a show
You're just another piece, another piece of meat"
You're just another piece, another piece of meat"
