

Section 31 [Overblow Your Nest]

The Polyphonic Spree

Complicated heart of mine
With wings of love, nowhere to fly
Peculiar pattern is setting in
The sun is coming back againOne day soon, you'll make a mess
The world comes down
And over blows your nest and goesThe summer clouds, they made us proud
The clock extends we live without
The ringing slumber, forgotten years
The angels sing when the end is nearOne day soon, you'll make a mess
The world comes down
And takes you to your nest and it goesMaybe you and me
Are hoping for anything
We want this world to know
That we're aliveSomeday you reach it how
For all the times you lived without
And fought the dreams
You have down deep inside'Cause one day soon
The world comes down
And says goodbyeExhausted trend of thought decides
This complicated heart of mine
The wishes lie, I can't pretend
This life I had to begin againOne day soon, I make a mess
Angels come and take me to my nest
And I'll goWell, I made us strive
For all the days I came alive
The world became the one
I'm quite a tryI reach down, it blew my soul
For all the days I wanna go
I want this world to know
That I'm alive'Cause one day soon
The world comes down
And says goodbyeYes, one day soon
The world comes down
And says goodbye
