Vampire

Marilyn Middleton

In the dark of moon, there is no life, I'm free
I have no love to blind my eye for me
Dark of moon the tides are flying
Far below the world is lying unaware
My soul is crying
Vampire, this is my song

Oh I love you all, you're beautiful to me
Though there's not a one among you who can see
Who among you understand's it
Bloody mouths and bloody hands are all you know
But soon you'll know
The vampire, it won't be long

Oh your life's too short, your love is gone too soon
Come with me, we'll fly the dark of moon, the dark of moon
Life's not life if you must lose it
Death's not death if you refuse it
Who can blame you if you choose
The vampire, forever young
Forever young
Forever young
